The James Larmour Scholarship
For Students with Learning Disabilities
2016 – 2017 Academic Year

The James Larmour Scholarship for students with Learning Disabilities is an endowed scholarship established at Eastern Kentucky University to promote and support the educational needs of deserving students who are diagnosed with specific learning disabilities.

A scholarship may be awarded annually to a deserving student who meets the following criteria. Please note: This is an ECU Foundation Scholarship. New and renewal awards of ECU Foundation scholarships are subject to available funds each year, so the award amount may vary from year to year.

This is a competitive scholarship. Applicants must meet the following criteria to apply:

1. Be a current Eastern Kentucky University student or an incoming freshman that has met University Admissions requirements. Current students need to be in good standing with ECU. Incoming students need to provide a copy of the acceptance letter from the Admissions Office.

2. Applicants must have appropriate and current documentation that states the presence of a specific learning disability. This documentation must either accompany the attached application or be on file at the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities Office. Documentation must meet the guidelines set forth for LD documentation guidelines from the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities (OSID).

3. Applicants must request consideration for the scholarship in writing (typed) and provide within the body of the letter why and how such a scholarship would benefit the educational needs of the student.

*The Larmour Scholarship is renewable (student could be awarded more than one year), apply each academic year.

* The need for financial aid is a strong prerequisite.

* Deadline for application is JUNE 01, 2016

* This is a competitive scholarship.

Interested applicants should submit the above criteria and the typed essay to the address below. Questions may be addressed to the Disabilities Office Director by calling 859.622.2933.
